

E pluribus unum?

Possibilities and Limits of a Shared (Eastern) European Collective Memory of the Second World War

SUMMER WORKSHOP 2021

In cooperation with:
Georg-August-Universität Göttingen
Stiftung Adam von Trott, Imshausen e.V.
Higher School of Economics, St. Petersburg
Polotsk State University, Novopolotsk

Founded by:
Federal Government Commissioner for Culture and the Media
Belarusian-German History Commission

@ Foto: Stiftung Adam von Trott, Imshausen e.V.

KEY FACTS

- Joint Classroom (May)
- Public lectures (June)
- On-Site Summer Workshop in Göttingen and Imshausen (July, if possible)
- Together with students from Belarus and Russia
- Eligible as Aufbau-, Vertiefungs- and Masterseminar
- Working Language: English
- No Fees
- First Meeting: Tuesday, 6th of April 2021, 10am

More information:

Kerstin Bischl (kerstin.bischl@uni-goettingen.de)

or via StudIP